

IBF Research Fellowships at IMAR

With the kind support of The Informational Buildup Foundation, the Simion Stoilow Institute of Mathematics of the Romanian Academy (IMAR) is able to offer a number of research fellowships in the framework of the research project Mathematical Foundations and Experimental Protocols for the Informational Buildup Framework (IBF), which aims to investigate the mathematical properties of the IBF and to develop a formal framework that allows the rigorous analysis and description of this model.

Location: Bucharest, Romania

URL: www.imar.ro

Duration: 3 months

Description: Research fellowships, open to PhD students, young researchers and senior researchers

To apply please submit: CV, list of publications

Email address: inst-math@imar.ro